

Me and My World - Get Creative!

William Hogarth was an artist who lived 300 years ago.
He made art about his life and the world around him.

He would sometimes include himself in his work like the two below.
These are called self-portraits - kind of like a selfie!

Artists like to show things they love or their hobbies in their self-portraits.
Hogarth liked to include his pet dog and painting!

Think about it.

What does this make you think about William Hogarth?
What do you want other people to think about you?

Your turn!

Draw your own self-portrait.
What will you put in it?

Do you want to be next to your pet, your family or your friends?
Do you want to show off a skill?
Do you like sport? Art? Reading?
How will you show people this?

Add it to our gallery! Ask an adult to share a picture of your work on social media using #HogarthAtHome
