

Have a go!

Think of the street you live on today. Is it noisy? Smelly? Full of people? Full of trees? Draw your street below:

A London artist

KEY STAGE 2

William Hogarth was an artist 300 years ago. He was inspired by what he saw around him. His work can show us what London was like back then.

What was London like 300 years ago? Let's find out!

My name is

HOGARTH'S
HOUSE

London Borough of Hounslow

1

Life then and now

This picture by Hogarth shows a busy street in London.

There are a lot of people doing different jobs in this picture.

Can you figure out what jobs they have? Write the number next to the character in the picture above:

1. Milkmaid carries milk (in a bucket) for people
2. Knife-grinder sharpens knives on a stone
3. Street musician plays for money in the street
4. Chimney sweep cleans soot from dirty chimneys

Discuss with a partner, if you lived in London 300 years ago, which job would you want. Why?

2

Discover Hogarth's London

That print is called The Enraged Musician. Enraged means angry.

Why do you think he is so angry?

Hint: What is he trying to do?
