

Have a go!

Find a nice quiet place outside to sit and think:

What can I see and hear around me?

How do I feel today?

Why do I feel this way?

What would I like to do tomorrow?

Draw one of the things you see outside today that makes you happy:

Nature diary

KEY STAGE 1

William Hogarth was an artist. He loved dogs and had a pet dog called Trump. Trump loved going outside because it made him happy.

Let's explore Trump's senses and feelings.

My name is

.....

HOGARTH'S
HOUSE

1

Using our senses

We use our senses to explore the world around us.
Dog's like William Hogarth's dog Trump have them too!

Finish these sentences about Trump:

He uses his eyes to _____ his favourite tree.

Sniff sniff. He uses his nose to _____ flowers.

He uses his tongue to _____ his bone.

He uses his ears to _____ a buzzing bee.

He uses his body to _____ the warm sun.

2

Keeping a diary

In a diary we write what we did that day and how we felt.
Some days make us happy, others make us sad.

Use the words below to start your diary.

Today I saw _____

Today I heard _____

Today I smelt _____

Today I ate _____

Today I feel _____

Draw how you feel on the face below:

