

Have a go!

William Hogarth's dog Trump loved going outside because he loved playing and getting exercise.

Draw one thing that makes you happy about being outdoors:

Nature diary

KEY STAGE 2

William Hogarth was an artist. He loved dogs and had a pet dog called Trump. Trump loved going outside because it made him happy.

Let's get outside to explore our senses and feelings.

My name is

HOGARTH'S
HOUSE

Using our senses

We use our eyes, ears, tongue, nose and body to explore and understand the world around us and we use a diary to write down what we do and how we feel.

Let's start your very own nature diary!

Today I see...

Do you see any trees? Do they have leaves on them?

Draw a leaf you see.

Today I see...

Today I hear...

1. _____
2. _____

Today I hear...

Close your eyes. What do you hear? Maybe a buzzing bee or a singing bird?

List two things you hear.

Today I ate...

Fruits and vegetables are good for us and grow in the ground outside.

How many have you eaten?

Today I ate...

___ fruits

___ vegetables

Today I smell...

Close your eyes again. What can you smell? It might be a flower that smells really lovely or a stinky rubbish bin!

Circle what you think of the smell.

Today I smell...

Something I like

Something I don't like

Today I feel...

Some days we can feel happy, sad, frustrated or excited.

Draw how you feel on the face. Think about why you feel this way and write it down.

Today I feel...

because _____
